

Beginning Beekeeping Course

Saturday 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM
February 17, 2018
Frontier Power meeting room
770 South 2nd Street, Coshocton, OH 43812

Registration includes classroom sessions, a book for beginning beekeepers (one per household), a light lunch, a hands on field day at a Coshocton County bee yard in the Spring, and one year membership to the Coshocton County Bee Club

The class will be conducted by local beekeepers, several of which have 10 years of experience. They will be assisted by new beekeepers well aware of beginners concerns.

Registration is $50.00 per person and $25.00 for each additional person from the same family household.

Topics to be covered include: benefits of keeping bees, equipment and supplies needed, honeybee biology, hive management, finding and purchasing supplies, bee problems and solutions. All the basics to start beekeeping or help save natures most efficient pollinator.
